

I am pleased with the changes that the restrictions on unsolicited calls has made at my residence in Indianapolis. I see no need for the Federal Government to mess with something that is successful in Indiana now.